Mission

Urban Corps of San Diego County is a certified local conservation corps and charter school whose mission is to provide young adults with the tools to expand their career opportunities through education, life skills training, and paid work experience on projects that benefit our communities.

Background and Capacity

Founded in 1989, Urban Corps of San Diego County is a non-profit whose mission provides young adults ages 18-26 with education and job skills. Urban Corps provide a second chance at a high school education while receiving paid on-the-job training. Our social enterprise model and focus on fee-for-service contracts is what sets us apart from most non-profits and we maintain a host of partnerships which help us create employment opportunities for youth. Urban Corps offers a variety of building, construction and landscaping design build services to public and private stakeholders across San Diego County.
